

Mini CV, Martin Wendelboe

Born November 2nd, 1959

My person

I have been married to Nina since 1987. Together we have three adult kids who have all left home. Nina and I live in a cooperative apartment in Copenhagen and enjoy our spare time in this beautiful city, or at our summerhouse in the North of Zealand if not traveling.

Life Purpose

For many years I have realized that my life purpose is to do whatever I can to make people – and in particular leaders – thrive, creating a better life, better companies and a better world for all of us.

CAREER & EXPERIENCES

Basically my entire career has been about people, development, communication and relations. Since 1996 it has mostly been as a consultant and facilitator with a focus on leadership and change in private and public companies. To avoid repeating myself too much I will list some of the subjects I find myself to master: Personal Development, Project Leadership, Team Development & Leadership, Value Based Leadership, Change Processes, Feedback & Coaching, Facilitating Conflicts, Train The Trainer, Training Design, Stress Engagement, Intercultural Awareness, Leadership & Company Culture, etc...

2014-	Co-creator of Reconnecting.life (www.reconnecting.life) A Leadership Program with a vision of reconnecting humans to life.
2009-	Owner of WENDELBOE&CO. Leadership & Change
2005-2009	Employed as Senior Consultant in various consultancy companies
2000-2005	Owner of Omentor: Leadership & Change
1996-2000	Scandinavian Airlines System: Development Consultant & Facilitator Besides the already mentioned I was also responsible of the pedagogic development of international trainers and consultants divided among the Scandinavian capitals and major international airline hubs.
1995-1996	Sales and Account Support, SAS Corporate and Agent Help Desk
1993-1995	Sales Account, SAS Travel Agency
1986-1993	Line and General Manager, SAS Ground Services
